ENDURANCE LAND RECRUITES NEW SURVEYOR

LONDON, 14th May 2007 – Endurance Land have appointed Henry MacInnes as a Senior Surveyor at their London Office.

Endurance Land is a property company run by Jonathan Fletcher and Angus Robson. The fast growing firm has ambitious plans for the Central London market, with a strong track record in the active management of assets that require refurbishment or redevelopment, whilst enhancing current income streams.

Jonathan Fletcher, Managing Director of Endurance Land commented:

“We are very pleased to have Henry joining our London Team. He is a very capable surveyor who I’m sure will make an immediate impression and contribution to the continued success of Endurance Land.”

MacInnes previously worked within the Investment Division at CB Richard Ellis and will work on Endurance Land’s active requirements along with the implementation of current and future business plans.
